

ALLOWS HASKINS TO RUN IN BOSTON

Pennsylvanian Throttled Pete Herring in Indoor Meet in Richmond.

SUSPENDED BY DR. GRANT

Ruling of South Atlantic Association Disregarded by President James E. Sullivan.

G. D. Haskins, the Pennsylvania mile-runner, who was suspended by the registration committee of the South Atlantic Association of the American Athletic Union, for a foul committed in the indoor track meet held in the Horse Show building in Richmond on January 26th, was allowed by James E. Sullivan, president of the American Athletic Union, to run for Pennsylvania in a special relay race between that university and Dartmouth in the open meet given in Boston on February 9th by the Boston Athletic Association.

In making his decision allowing Haskins to run in the Sullivan race, the president of the American Athletic Union, disregarding the action taken by the South Atlantic Association in the Richmond indoor meet. In passing on the protest of the Dartmouth manager, Mr. Sullivan took the stand that it was a closed event, controlled by the Intercollegiate A. A. U., and that the protest could not hold.

Coming from a man who has always stood for the highest in the true-reformer type, the decision of President Sullivan is apparently as much without excuse as it is partial for the Philadelphia, for whom Mr. Sullivan is said to retain an undiluted fondness.

The mile run here Haskins throttled Pete Herring, another runner, endangering his life and limb. The action was as unprofessional as it could well be, and Haskins was promptly suspended by Dr. Grant. This was sufficient to exclude him from the Boston meet, but President Sullivan decided not.

As a matter of fact, President Sullivan's action is extremely hurtful to the A. A. U. in the South, especially in Richmond, where the South Atlantic Association of the A. A. U. is still in its infancy, and where the interests of the A. A. U. need to be fostered with the greatest care.

There could be no question as to the authority of Dr. Grant in suspending Haskins. Dr. Grant referred the meet, and is a regular officer of the A. A. U. He is well known to all the sporting world, having been in his time one of the greatest athletes in the country, and he was a near competitor for the all-round championship of the United States. Herring was a member of the team for the meet. One has but to look up the official records of the A. A. U. to find all that is necessary to know about his standing in the sporting world. Dr. Joseph Kelly managed the meet, and was clerk of the course. He was at one time a member of the famous Georgetown indoor relay team, which established a new record for the mile. Mr. James O'Shea is a lawyer of Washington city, and has been officiating at meets for the past ten years.

What sort of recognition, then, does Mr. Sullivan intend giving the South Atlantic Association? Are men who come from the other branches of the A. A. U. to be allowed to come South without observing the rules of true sportsmanship? And what of Mr. Sullivan's boasted stand for manliness and clean action in the sports of the A. A. U.? There are questions now commonly heard in local sporting circles.

OUTLOOK BRIGHT.

Over Twenty-Five Applicants for Baseball Team at Academy.

At a meeting of the baseball applicants held Thursday at Richmond Academy, H. J. Quarles, star first baseman of last year's team, was unanimously elected captain, and Prof. E. W. Hudkins, from the faculty, was chosen manager of the team for 1907. During the entire meeting a great spirit of enthusiasm prevailed, and with this was an intense earnestness, indicating that every man meant to hustle for a place on the team.

Last year Richmond Academy decisively defeated all the schools of the preparatory school league, winning the championship, thus completing the most successful season in the athletic history of the institution. With five old players of this star team again out for practice, in addition to twenty new men, the student body hopes to retain its laurels as leaders of the sphere.

Among the new applicants, the timber is especially promising. Davidson and Rose, from Barton Heights; Lewis and Hite, from Manchester, and Minson, from Richmond, were highly recommended with "reps" already started in the baseball world. Quarles, Williams, Harrison, Smith and L. Bradley delivered the goods on last year's winning team. Other applicants who have shown ability are Gwathmey, Augustine, M. Taylor,

Omega Oil

For Sore Throat and Cold in Chest

You can't cure a cold in the chest, or sore throat, or shooting pains in the lungs, by swallowing medicines. The stuff you swallow goes into your stomach, and your trouble is not there at all. What you want to do is to rub your throat and chest with Omega Oil, and do it quick, too. Nature made this oil for exactly this purpose. It subdues and overcomes the inflammation and is at least a hundred times better than a sticky, itching, nasty poultice. Don't lose time fooling with such things, but start using Omega Oil as quickly as you can.

Three sizes: 10c., 25c., 50c.
Free sample Omega Oil Soap in every bottle of Omega Oil.

Omega Oil is also good for Rheumatism, Lumbago, Neuralgia, and all aches and pains.

MANAGERS OF TEAMS OF TWO MEDICAL COLLEGES HERE

Edward S. Rawls, manager of the Medical College of Virginia baseball team, which will play McGuire's next Saturday. This team is also scheduled to play Richmond College early in March and the nine of the University College of Medicine three games for the championship. The aggregation of the Medical College will be composed of players who have all achieved good reputations on other diamonds.

J. Mortimer Hughes, manager of the University College of Medicine, which will play the team of the Medical College of Virginia for the championship. Manager Hughes has many men under him who have been stars on the nines of academic colleges.

AT SKATING RINK.

Novel Attractions Booked There for This Week.

Orville and Frank, who delighted the patrons of the big roller rink all last week, concluded their engagement last night. For this week something entirely novel will be put on in Lowande and Wilson's Bijou circus, a combination of artists, dogs and ponies that presents every feature generally found in a high-class show.

The troupe includes a pair of well-educated trick ponies, a group of clever acting dogs, who can do everything but talk, funny clowns, jugglers, acrobats and several sensational aerial acts that will be seen in their entirety twice every day, in afternoon at 6 P. M., the special matinee for ladies and children, and at night at 8:30 P. M.

In addition to the circus all the week, there will be shown the usual series of interesting pictures, including "The Magic Casket," "An Automobile Romance" and many other good ones.

VIRGINIA WINS RELAY RACE

Pays Off Old Scores by a Signal Victory at Washington Meet.

WINS THREE EVENTS IN ALL

Woodberry Forest and Episcopal High School Also Win Honors.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] WASHINGTON, D. C., February 22.—Four brawny sons of the Old Dominion, true to their alma mater, the University of Virginia, regained their lost laurels from George Washington in the Federal games to-night, when the sturdy quartet outran the Hincheyettes in the one-mile relay for the collegiate championship of the South, amid great excitement. It was just this way:

Marburg, of Virginia, started off against Gunning, the former gaining gradually on his opponent. Reeder and Chaggett came next, with the Virginian in a bit of a speed. With Virginia at least twenty yards in the lead, Reed lengthened the distance. Basher and Gill battled it out, and the first time around the local runner made good a catch, but in the final lap, in the straightaway, Basher let out at full blast, and won by twenty yards. Never was there so much enthusiasm shown over an indoor relay race in the history of athletic sports in this city. The Charlottesville contingent—and there were some few there—went wild with joy over the signal victory of their sturdy representatives.

Tried to Break Record.

Martin Sheridan, of the Irish-American Athletic Club, of New York, and all-around champion of the world, made an attempt to establish a new world record in the 50-yard weight event for height. The best mark the New Yorker could do was 15 feet 6 inches, his present record.

Standing directly under the disc, which is movable, Sheridan threw the big weight. Attached to the big ball is a triangular-shaped iron handle. In throwing the weight, Sheridan catches the handle with his right hand and swings it twice between his legs before letting go.

The Woodberry Forest relay five was defeated by the Georgetown Prep. team in a one-mile relay, while the University of the Orange School was beaten by the Country School for Boys team, of Baltimore.

Against a fast field of sprinters, S. F. Reed, of the University of Virginia, came out victorious in the final heat of the fifty-yard scholastic hurdle race, with E. C. Kemper, of Central High School, a close second.

No point of entries and the quality of the 340 or more individual athletes seen at the games to-night, the meet proved to be one of the most successful and biggest affairs of the kind ever pulled off in the South. The manner in which the management of the office held up their end of the affair was particularly gratifying to the large number of spectators.

That the meet panned out to be the greatest athletic carnival held in Washington in years was the pronounced opinion of every one.

FAST OUTFIELDER SECURED BY SHAFER FOR LAWMAKERS

Is All-Round Man and Is Expected to Make Good Here.

George M. Snoko, the new outfielder who has been secured by Manager Shaffer for a try-out for the Richmond team this spring, has been playing professional ball for the past seven years. He is a left-handed hitter, and is but twenty-seven years of age. He weighs 150 pounds, is five feet seven inches in height, and is a good inside man as well as a splendid outfielder.

In the season of 1903 Snoko played with the Milton, Penn., League team, in which he hit .305 and fielded .566. The following year he played with the Jamestown, New York Interstate League team. With this team he hit .310 and fielded .561. In 1905 he was with the team of Lebanon, Penn., in the Pennsylvania Tri-State League, with whom he hit .301 and fielded .571, which is considered a remarkably good score.

Last year he played with the strong Burnham Club, of Lewiston, Pa., where he hit .346 in ninety games. The Burnham Club was the strongest independent and semi-professional team in the State of Pennsylvania.

Snoko puts in his time in the winter teaching school. He is a man of excellent habits, and it is believed that he will be well liked.

The new outfielder has played on the same teams with, and against, Long and Titman, both of whom declare he is a good one.

Manager Shaffer said about him: "I expect Snoko to be one of the fastest and best all-round men in the league."

ANDERSON WON COVETED MEDAL

Carried Off Trophy at Richmond Gun Club Shoot Here Yesterday.

Despite the very cold and raw weather, there was a good attendance yesterday afternoon at the Richmond Gun Club to witness the 16 match shot off between J. A. Anderson and W. S. MacLellan for the handsome gold medal donated by the Hunter Arms Company.

Anderson, whose duties with a cartridge company commence to-morrow, was in the form. Shooting at 20 singles, using both barrels, from the 15-yard line, he easily accounted for 17, while Mr. MacLellan dropped 5. In the doubles Anderson went out with 14 to the good, making the high score of 31 out of 40, winning the much-coveted medal.

During this interesting contest the following have had legs on the medal: V. Hechler, T. W. Tignor, Wiley Lawrence, H. J. Walsh, Johnny Martin, William Harris, MacLellan and Anderson.

Anderson's win was a popular one, and he was warmly congratulated.

Mr. W. A. Hammond made the highest score of the extra events, accounting for 87 out of the 100.
